Biography

Jean Hibbons

Edna Hibbons was born on April 14, 1921, in Pennsylvania. She attended grade school in Pennsylvania and moved to Wyoming when she was thirteen. Her stepfather had been a coal miner in Wyoming before marrying her mother, and after they were married, the family moved to Wyoming for work. She was an only child and had what she considered a very happy childhood.

Her first job in Wyo was a telephone operator. This was during World War II. Her starting pay was 25¢ an hour. It was a union job, she is solidly pro Union. After just a few years on the job, she was making $1.00 an hour. She married Grant Hibbons in 1949. Grant was a miner and occasional construction worker. They travelled around Wyoming and Idaho until 1953, when they settled back in Rock Springs. They had three children; Cliff, Barbara, and Wallace.

Grant Hibbons was from Utah. Edna claims Butch Cassidy worked at his family grocery prior to becoming a criminal Grant Gibbons died in 1966.

Edna remarried a few years later.
Her second husband was William Anderson. He worked primarily construction. They were divorced in 1974.

Edna went to work at Sears in 1974, and is presently working there.
